The 22nd Annual College & Career Expo Gives College Options, Career Advice and Scholarships

LOUISVILLE, KY (October 10, 2013) – Choosing a college and career can be a difficult task, but the 22nd annual College and Career Expo gives prospective students and job seekers the opportunity to talk to a variety of colleges and employers in one location. Held at the Kentucky Exposition Center, the event draws more than 12,000 attendees and is one of the largest college and career expos in the country.

More than 250 exhibitors, including colleges and universities from 30 states, will offer education and career information. Participating schools will award more than $750,000 of scholarship money at the expo. The event will feature educational seminars on topics including online learning, paying for college and preparing for the ACT test. In addition, a panel of counselors from Vanderbilt University, University of Pennsylvania and Johns Hopkins University will present information about the admission process for elite and selective schools.

Held Sunday, Oct. 13 from 1 p.m. – 4 p.m. in South Wing A at the Kentucky Exposition Center, this event is free and open to the public. For more information, visit <http://www.collegeandcareerexpo.com>.
